An aerial photograph of a white BC Ferries vessel docked at a pier. The vessel is positioned in the center of the frame, with its bow facing the viewer. The pier is a long, narrow structure extending from the shore, with several white metal ramps leading down to the water. The water is a deep blue-grey color. In the background, a dense forest of evergreen trees covers a hillside. To the right of the pier, there is a paved area with some buildings and a few cars. The sky is a pale blue with some light clouds.
